

MISSION AND VISSION OF HARAMAYA AREA FARMER COOPERATIVE UNION (L.TD)

HARAMAYA AREA FARMER'S COOPERATIVE UNION (L.TD)

vision

- To see its members well served in any services ,living improved life and condition and playing a great role in a national Economy.
- The association to seek market for their product at sustainable price and improve their productivity from traditional to modern to meet the needs of their members make them promising and strongly competitive free market process

Mission

- Provide better service at fair price ,required time and amount in which members become competent enough in the free market with providing better price to their product .
- To see the production associations playing an important role lifting citizens ,job and economics and social development through the country's activities .

Objective

- To improved the bargaining power of members
- To procure input and service at a low cost
- To enable members product get better market access
- To promote modern Agricultural technologies
- To promote education and training
- To involve in natural resource management ans social affairs

Service And products of Haramaya farmer's cooperative union

- To improved supply of agricultural input for smallholder farmer in operation area .
- Provide output marketing service for members and contribute to a stronger marketing infrastructure
- Provide market information storage and transportation service that members farmer leverage in their output marketing activity
- .Ensure accesses to good and service for farmer through establishing different Agri business venture like fettering and diary farming